CLASS

HISTORY

On September 14, 1936, forty-seven eighth graders entered Boonville High School. The year quickly passed under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Hewitt and Mr. W.E. Brooks. Our most delightful entertainment was a trip to Roaring Gap and a night at the theater in Elkin.

In the fall of 1937, after losing several members and gaining others, we numbered fifty-three. That year our entertainment was a trip to Catawba Dam and the show, which was sponsored by Miss Louise Abrams and Mr. Watt Deal.

In our Junior year, the forty-five of us had many trials, but Miss Grace Hayes helped the days pass easily. The highlight entertainments were a Halloween party and the Junior-Senior Banquet.

The leadership of the thirty-five seniors that enrolled in September 1939 was given to Bryce Poindexter, president; Violette Wolfe, vice president; M. Annie Woodruff, secretary and treasurer; and Miss Grace Hayes, sponsor. This year our Junior-Senior Banquet and the class parties have been big successes. Now we leave with one thought in mind:

And when honor, fame and fortune
In our pathway lie
Back our hearts shall turn to praise you
As the years roll by.

Junior Wise Cracks

Why does Bill go to see the doctor every night?

Wonder if "Pete" Coe is a good cook, maybe she's taking lessons from the "Baker Boy".

Claude, you aren't on the first team this year, maybe you can steal Graham's thunder.

Gurthorine is fond of caps, especially the "Bill".

Why is Caroline so fond of "Red" Wood?

Why is Gertha Mae always "Dobbin" around Yadkinville?

John Wade is like a sailor--a girl in every port.

Do you know why Irene Dezern likes to study "Henry Clay" in history?

We can all understand why Lois wants to go to High Point to take a beauty course.

Raby is the boy a good salesman that sells your father pigs during the week-ends?

Clay Hobson better known as "Si".

Grace has always been fond of "Honey", but now more than ever.

Earline, you may get to be Gerthorine's cousin yet.

Do you know why Marie likes to go to Elkin?

Allene what does "C. L." stand for, "Crazy Love"?

Paul may not always get to second base but he goes over first with the girls.

WISE CRACKS

What will the "Holy Six" do when Jonesville boys go to the war? "Run sawmills"; says Mr. Martin.

People says Thurman Brown likes "Money" but can't keep it very well.

Mary Kate, which kind of "sugar do you prefer?

Bill Dobbins swallowed a mule and got it all in but his tail.

Howard Wooten's feet are so big he has to have his shoes special made.

Gorl Moxley has his sister to wave his hair.

Wayne Bangle wrote a History book, called it "Modern Facts by Bangle, Bangle and Bangle.

Achsah Ann says lots does not suit her.

Mr. Walker will have to study mules before he gets Harrell Renegar out of the ninth grade.

Howard Adams does not take agriculture because there are not any girls in the class

Bobby Bohannon was going to wrtie a new spelling book but the words were too hard.

RECORD OF SEASON

For the fourth consecutive year Boonville girls basketball team was champion of Yadkin county.

Getting away in the early season to a rather inconspicuous start, the team gathered skill and, consequently, momentum as the season progressed. Due to the loss of four stars from the great team of 1939, the team this year was not expected to measure up to its immediate predecessor. Nevertheless, a very creditable record was established by winning nineteen while losing only four.

Nannie Woodruff was captain of this years team and possibly its outstanding player. She was ably assisted, however, by Pete Coe, Vie Norman, Ollie Mae Hosteller, Cam Shore and Opal Taylor. This starting cast was supported by Axie Shore, Mary Kate Woodhouse, Carolyn Fletcher, Margaret Pardue, Lucy Dobbins and Eva Taylor. This reserve sextet saw action in most of the games and acquitted itself very creditably.

The Boonville boys, under the direction of Coach Watt Deal, upheld the basketball tradition of the school by winning sixteen out of twenty-seven games for the season. The team was well balanced with each player doing his part. Graham Stinson led the individual scoring with two hundred and five points.

The team climaxed its season by winning the Elkin Tri-County tournament, downing Yadkinville in the finals.

The following boys have worked hard to make the season a successful one: Gilbert Pardue, Harold Stinson, Fred Coram, Graham Stinson, Curtis Hobson, Paul Brown, Lester Taylor, Claude Denny, Herbert Johnson, and Posey Cockerham.
